Brothers Are Arrested in Murder Case

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Two brothers from Chicago — one of them a teenager — were arrested Wednesday and booked on suspicion of murdering former silent screen star Ramon Novarro, whose nude body was found in his posh Hollywood home Oct. 31, police said.

Officers said Paul Robert Ferguson, 22, and Thomas Scott Ferguson, 17 were being held at the North Hollywood police station.

Police Lt. G. W. Lauretzen said the brothers were arrested without a struggle in Bell Gard dens — Paul at a restaurant and Thomas at the home of a friend, where he was staying.

The officer said Paul Ferguson had come to Los Angeles from Chicago about five months ago and that his brother arrived about three weeks ago.

Lauretzen said the probe into the 69-year-old Novarro's bludgeon death turned up the brothers' names "and we centered our investigation on them. After checking out the physical evidence we decided we had enough of a case to ask for indictments."

The body of Novarro was found by his male secretary in the former idol's $150,000 Laurel Canyon home. Officers said Novarro's head and upper body were badly beaten and that there were signs of a fierce struggle at the house.

Both Parties Suspect Cook County Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — The official vote canvass begins today in Cook County (Chicago) amid charges by both major parties that there was vote fixings in an election which gave Richard M. Nixon the presidency on the strength of Illinois' 26 electoral votes.

Mayor Richard J. Daley, who, as head of the Democratic party machinery in Illinois has sometimes been accused by his opponents of finagling with election returns, said Wednesday the official count "might show some interesting figures."

There were 109 unreported precincts in heavily Democratic Chicago and 84 in suburbs. It was generally conceded that these precincts with 400-500 votes each could not overcome Nixon's 135,502-vote plurality in Illinois over Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

With 95 per cent of the state's 10,694 precincts reported, unofficial returns gave Nixon 2,064,756 votes to Humphrey's 1,929,254.

Mrs. Marie H. Suthers, lone Republican on the three-member board of election commissioners said the charges that returns in heavily Republican suburban communities had been intentionally delayed were "purely political" and "simply untrue."

er's eight years in the White House.

Nixon—and the Republican platform—advocated tax credits especially for dealing with problems of the city poor and unemployed.

Rather than programs like the Democratic-inspired Job Corps, they would abate taxes for businesses willing to hire and train workers with low skills.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee is an outspoken opponent of tax credits and in general of using the revenue to achieve nonfiscal purposes.

Less than a month before the election, Mills denounced such plans as "back door spending," saying they could cost billions more than appropriations for the same purposes.

Other areas of possible conflict include the Vietnam war, defense spending and the income surtax.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., continues as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. Fulbright, a consistent opponent of President Johnson's Vietnam War policies, presumably would rally opposition to any toughening of this policy by Nixon if the Paris peace discussions come to nothing.

The Nixon camp has spoken of a substantial rise in military expenditures exclusive of Vietnam. Here Nixon could expect support from influential Democrats in both chambers who have listened sympathetically to complaints that the Soviet Union is closing gaps or even forging ahead in some areas of military power.

But there would be a strong push among other Democrats to use any "peace bonus"—savings from a settlement in Vietnam—for domestic social programs or tax relief.

A politically delicate question both the new administration and Congress must face next year, especially if by then progress has been made toward peace, is whether to re-enact the 10 per cent income tax surcharge. Unless Congress acts, it will expire June 30, rekindling fears of big deficits and a boost to inflation.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA

JOLOS MEET

"Spotlight on the Teacher" was brought to the Alpha Delta Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, in a meeting at the Heritage House on Tuesday, November 5 with Betty Jane Foster in charge of the program.

In a talk by Muriel June McLarty, the group learned "How to be More Charming." Then, a guest, Mary Arnold of Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio, demonstrated "How to be More Beautiful" and distributed samples of cosmetics to those present. They were also given a list of books for self-improvement, and in a few months a check will be made to see how many have read them.

Routine business transpired under the direction of the president, Edith Brown. Several attractive arrangements of colorful fall flowers enhanced the meeting area.

An autumn bouquet centered the table from which pie, tidbits, coffee and spiced tea were served to 22. Norma Cohea poured. The group included members, the guest speaker, and one other guest, Penny Franks Formby, a practice teacher at Hope High School.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

When Mrs. Lloyd Spencer entertained her Tuesday Bridge Club on November 5, Mrs. Bill Wray was a guest and also took the top scoring honors. Mrs. George Robinson was second.

A mixed bouquet of seasonal flowers provided a focal point of interest. At the conclusion of play at two tables, ice cream and petits fours were served for refreshments.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

CANDIDATE FOR MEANEST BOSS

Dear Helen: You aren't always lucky when you win.

A local store put on a contest, with two weeks in Hawaii as first prize. Everybody in our office entered, just for kicks. Including the boss, except he does not do anything "just for kicks."

Wonderful surprise: I won! They telephoned the news and asked me to be at our television station next day to receive my prize. The other office girls were thrilled as I was. But when I asked my boss for an hour off to be on TV, he said, with that terribly polite smile of his, "Sure, and on the way out, pick up your check. You're through!"

I couldn't believe it, as I'm a good worker with a good record and never asked time off before, though I often gave overtime. He coldly explained that I'd be worthless to the company. (I would have saved it for my vacation.)

This was my first job and now I won't get a recommendation. I'll probably have to spend my Hawaii money on rent and food while I hunt for work.

Or should I stop worrying and go away. —FIRED SECRETARY

Dear Fired: Choose Hawaii! You'll find work when you return, especially if word circulates on why you were fired—and it will. Ivy lei and a fistful of poi in the face. May all his secretaries be fat and dumb!

Dear Helen: You are a rat! My life was made until my mother read the letter from "REACHING FOR THE PADDLE."

I am 14 and was able to do anything I wanted. I never had to do chores or clean up my messy room. I had my parents trained so I didn't do ANYTHING, and was never punished. I even chiseled money from them for cigarettes.

The day my mother read your answer: "Don't just reach for the paddle, use it!" she changed. She told me to clean up my room. I sassed her. She said, "You've got an hour."

Now I am not laughing as I have a very sore behind and a bout what I have to do or expect my mother actually means it! Only a finky anti-teen-ager would tell a mother she should spank a young lady! Please immediately take it back, as I hate house-cleaning, and besides who has time for that junk?

Dear SALLY You'll have time for it. Sweetie, or else you'll be spending lots of time in a massy room.

I agree, young ladies shouldn't be spanked. But when a 14-year-old comes on like age-six, she should be treated accordingly. So glad your mother finally agrees with me. H.

Dear Helen: My mother cured my messy roomitis by inviting company to see the house, including my room. I got no new clothes, not even a pair of nylon. My father stopped my allowance, giving me some dumb excuse which I didn't believe. I got the point real soon. Now, after three months, I'm quite neat. And my folks didn't nag once. They just A C T E D . If a girl is a real stinker, she needs an unexpected spanking to catch her up. But if she's just careless, as I was, she'll shape up when she is quietly..... DEPRIVED

The quality of a saloon was judged by the variety of its free lunch and whether its brass cuspidors were brightly polished. It was easier to detect a dyed blonde than it was to spot a counterfeit $5 bill.

A poor person was one who bought day-old bread at the bakery because the price was low.

Every small town had at least one haunted house that children were afraid to pass by alone after dark.

A juvenile delinquent was a sneaky kid who put rocks in the snowballs he threw at adult passers-by.

Girls wore dresses so long that if they had chapped knees nobody knew it but them.

Those were the days! Remember?

Bobcats Are Preparing for Lincoln

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

What with the relief of a new president elected, the Hope Bobcats maintain the old routine this week, taking advantage of a two-day school holiday to rest their minds for the contest at Camden Lincoln tomorrow night.

This Thursday (today) and Friday is the yearly holiday for the meetings of the Arkansas Education Association, so the Bobcats were able to work out earlier this afternoon at 1:00 p.m. The chance is an advantage, even in such a tapering-off session, because the temperature has been falling fast later on in the afternoons.

Camden Lincoln does provide the opposition, and they are another surging club with a 4-4-1 mark for the fall. Last week was the tie, as the Smiths over Buckaroos had to score twice in the last seven minutes to tie 13-13.

As mentioned earlier this week, the Tigers prefer to run a power offense from the straight-T formation, with nothing fancy and all splits normal between the linemen. For a change they also have in the repertoire the Arkansas-I with a wingback on the strong side. In extreme situations Lincoln has been known to run the Slot-T set with the end on that side.

With good size all around, the Tigers still are far from being overpowering. Nevertheless, it should be a pretty good standoff between them and the Bobcats, both offensive and defensive.

Left end Donnie Davidson is a senior with good size (195) and can catch the ball well. The tackle beside him is big James Glover, a 190-pounder who can really move'em out.

Charles McRae, a junior 170-pounder, and twin brother Donald at 183 man the left guard and center positions, respectively. That left side may appear impressive, but so is the right.

Horace Smith mans the guard post at 175, but big Glen Nash (205) is a boss at right tackle. Both Smith and Nash are good blockers and are counted on in short-yardage situations to produce the holes.

Over at right end is junior 160-pounder Junius Culey, who also will be split out some 15 yards off the slot set. And that's the Camden Lincoln line, as big as the Rockies but not quite so impenetrable.

Basketball star Cleveland Murphy handles the quarterbacking duties with his 170-pound frame, and Murphy is in his senior year. Around Murphy, though, is a good assortment of power and outside running ability.

At left halfback is little Eddie Jones, a junior at only 145, but Eddie has made good headway in AAA competition thus far. On the other flank, and also the slot and wing man, is speedy Sherman Johnson, a senior 155-pounder.

The Camden Lincoln offense, though, is split Louis Thrift. A burly 220-pound fullback, Thrift is something at running over people in the middle of the line. If he is doing well, the Tigers are doing well, but if he is contained, then it's a long evening for Lincoln.

Coach Tyree Webster has several defensive performers back from last year, and he is able to start at least six or seven one-way performers on defense alone. They line up in a basic 3-2-3, which basically works best against outside running games.

Davidson starts at one end, and on the other side is Calvin Carroll, a 175-pound junior. One tackle is 150-pound Charles Lockback, with James Glover working on the other side.

Charles McRae starts at one guard, as the Bobcat defense can't have a noseman to worry about for the first time this season. At the other guard is senior Otis Welch, a tough 165-pounder.

On the 6-2 front line, the shuffling ability and charging effectiveness is especially important to the linebackers, who also have quite a few other responsibilities in case of a pass or end sweep. Donald McRae is the right linebacker, and on the left side is senior Robert Easter (180), another fine basketball player.

The Tiger defensive secondary could get a thorough test from Hope QB Larry Massanelli, but the Bobcats have hardly passed at all since the first

A-State Is 10th in Grid Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The lower end of The Associated Press Top Ten in small college football underwent some shuffling today, but up front the tune was the same: as the first 4½ places remained firm.

The half came up in the No. 5 position in which Tampa broke a deadlock with Weber State with a 22-19 victory last Saturday over Northern Michigan while Weber was dropping to 11th after a 50-42 loss to Idaho.

San Diego, North Dakota State, Chattanooga and New Mexico Highlands held their 1-2-3-4 spots with easy victories, although San Diego had its first place lead cut.

The Aztecs drew 10 of the 16 first-place votes and 266 points, down four top votes and 46 points from last week, despite a 42-12 rout over Fresno State. North Dakota State, with one first-place vote, had 232 points, a drop of 37 but a pick up of nine on San Diego.

Chattanooga, with one first place vote, had 191 points after a 20-6 decision over Tennessee Tech, and New Mexico Highlands had one top vote and 181 points after a 70-7 barrage of Western Colorado.

Eastern Kentucky moved up from seventh to sixth with a 21-20 squeaker over Murray State, and Indiana, Pa., moved from eighth to seventh after bombing California, Pa., 41-0. Western Kentucky rose from 10th to ninth by beating Morehead 24-21.

Texas A&T and Arkansas State joined the Top Ten, A&T jumping from 11th to eighth with a 43-0 victory over Sul Ross, and Arkansas moved from 13th to 10th by blasting Lamar Tech 41-7.

Dropping out with Weber was Morgan State, which had a 31-game winning streak ended with a 7-6 loss to North Carolina A&T and fell from ninth to fourth. Lenoir Rhyne moved from 18th to 12th and Appalachian from 19th to 13th for the biggest improvement. Kings Point and Emory & Henry joined the first 20 at 17th and 18th respectively, while Central Michigan and East Texas State dropped out from 16th and 17th, although East Texas won last Saturday.

Points are awarded for the first 15 picks by a panel of sports writers and sportscasters throughout the country on the basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1.

points as the Royals breezed. Detroit won for the fifth time in six starts as it exploded from a 111-111 tie in the final period behind Dave Bing, who finished with 37.1.

Seattle Coach Al Bianchi drew three straight technical fouls and was ejected along with center Bob Rule.

Elgin Baylor's 33 points as Los Angeles broke open a tight game in the final period. Wayne Embry had 30 points for the Bucks.

Jeff Mullins 10-foot jump shot with three seconds to play capped San Francisco's comeback over New York. The Knicks had gone ahead 93-92 with seven seconds left on a basket by Dick Barnett.

The Warriors, who overcame a 13-point deficit in the third quarter, were sparked by Rudy Lussio's 24 points, including 10 in the final period. Cazzie Russell led the Knicks with 18.

Remember that the game will begin tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. in Camden High's Coleman Stadium. And if you are unable to attend, the contest will be broadcast live and play-by-play over KXAR direct from Camden, with the Pre-Game Show beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Bullets Most Surprising Cage Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If an election were held today for the most surprising team in the National Basketball Association, the Baltimore Bullets would win hands down.

After five years of finishing in the depths of the Eastern Division, the Bullets have suddenly become a contender, and they scored a rousing 140-119 victory Wednesday night over the Atlanta Hawks.

The triumph was the fifth in a row for the Bullets, and their ninth in 12 outings.

Only Cincinnati's 133-122 decision over the Chicago Bulls kept the Bullets from jumping into first place as they stand only 28 percentage points behind the 7-2 Royals and remained tied with the 6-2 Boston Celtics.

In other action Detroit broke away from Seattle 127-118, Los Angeles bounced Milwaukee 128-115 and San Francisco nipped New York 94-93.

In the American Basketball Association, New Orleans defeated Miami 123-109, Denver defeated Indiana 109-107 in overtime, Kentucky crushed Minnesota 131-112, and Los Angeles overhauled Dallas 123-117.

The addition of rookie center Wes Unseld to complement Earl Monroe has made the difference in Baltimore. They scored 22 and 29 points, respectively, along with 24 by Kevin Loughery against the Hawks. But it was Leroy Ellis and Ray Scott who led a 49-point fourth quarter surge that moved them from a 12-point deficit in the third period to a 109-90 lead.

Ellis hit all his 15 points and Scott 10 of his 14 in the final half.

Don Ohl's 27 points led the Hawks, playing without Zelmo Beaty, who damaged the cartilage in his right knee in pregame warmups.

Jerry Lucas and Tom Van Arsdale shot Cincinnati into a 69-42 lead in the first half and Oscar Robertson added 31 couple of games. At the halfback couple of games. At the halfbacks are soph Richard Brown, at 150 pounds, and junior Arthur Horne, at 160. Senior Robert Hall suits up for his safety position at 155 pounds.

This week will bring the easiest defensive unit the Bobcats have seen besides Texarkana Washington, as the Tigers have given up the yardage quite freely this time. The question for the Bobcats is whether or not replacements for the injured will come forth as well as their predecessors.

Remember that the game will begin tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. in Camden High's Coleman Stadium. And if you are unable to attend, the contest will be broadcast live and play-by-play over KXAR direct from Camden, with the Pre-Game Show beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Thinks Hope Will Lose to Lincoln

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hot Springs blanked Fayetteville last week—the Trojans' sixth shutout in eight games—but fell a half game behind in the Western Division of Class AAA.

The Trojans, you see, played a scoreless tie against Fayetteville.

Springdale's offense figures to give Hot Springs' vaunted defense its biggest test of the season Friday night, with the lead in the Western Division at stake. Springdale is 2-0 in the conference, Hot Springs 1-0-1.

Springdale's offense features the running of Kirby Clements and passing of Jim Irwin. The Bulldogs scored three touchdowns against top-ranked Fort Smith Northside.

The lead in the Class AAA Eastern Division will also be at stake Friday when West Memphis plays at Little Rock McClellan.

It will be the final conference game of the season for West Memphis, which is 3-0-1 in the league. Both McClellan and Jacksonville have on loss. West Memphis' speed may be too much for the Lions.

Little Rock Catholic and Russellville will settle the championship in 3AA-West, generally considered the strongest AA conference in the state, Friday night at Russellville. Dickey Will Start for Razorbacks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said Wednesday that senior David Dickey will start at tailback for the Razorbacks in Saturday's game against Rice.

Dickey, who has been hobbled by an injury, will start in place of sophomore Bill Burnett, who had stepped in when Dickey was injured.

Burnett suffered a sprained toe in the Porkers' victory over Texas A&M last Saturday. He has not worked out this week.

The Razorbacks worked out in pads for one hour and 15 minutes in 40-degree weather Wednesday.

Broyles said it was too cold

Carrier Goes on Binge for the Colonels

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

As far as the Minnesota Pipers are concerned, Darel Carrier sure picked a lousy time to go on a 48-point scoring binge.

Carrier's career-tying outburst Wednesday night guided the Kentucky Colonels to a 131-112 rout of the Pipers—their first setback in five American Basketball Association games this season.

In other ABA activity, Denver nipped Indiana 109-107, in overtime, Miami whipped New Orleans 123-109 and Los Angeles defeated Dallas 123-117.

Over in the National Basketball Association, Cincinnati topped Chicago 133-122, Detroit pounded Seattle 127-118, Los Angeles breezed past Milwaukee 128-115, Baltimore routed Atlanta 140-119 and San Francisco edged New York 94-93.

Carrier, who scored 48 points in a game with New Orleans last season, drilled in seven three-point shots from beyond the 25-foot range in powering Kentucky from a five-point halftime deficit to a 92-84 command at the end of three quarters.

Darel's showing overshadowed performances by Minnesota's three gunners—Connie Hawkins, Charles Vaughn and Charlie Williams. Hawkins had 32 points while Vaughn, who hit six straight three-point attempts, and Williams each had 26.

Denver's Wayne Hightower connected on a hook shot with 16 seconds left to send the game into overtime, and Larry Jones tallied on a driving layup and later hit a crucial free throw in the extra session, enabling the Rockets to win their first game in five starts.

Lonnie Wright led Denver with 26 points while Indiana's Ml Daniels had 29.

Miami trailed by as much as 16 points in the third quarter before launching a rally that made the Floridians' home debut a success.

Les Hunter scored 33 points and grabbed 15 rebounds, including vital ones when Miami outscored the Bucs 23-2 at the end of the third period and start of the final session. Austin Robbins and James Jones each scored 23 for New Orleans.

Los Angeles overcame a near-15 deficit in handling winless Dallas its third straight setback. Steve Chubin triggered the Stars' comeback.

Chubin's basket with 37 seconds left in the third quarter put Los Angeles ahead 91-90. Ron Boone gave the Chaps the lead again but Chubin's three-point goal on a 40-footer enabled the Stars to go in front at the end of the period.

Ben Warley topped Los Angeles with 40 points and Chubin contributed 27. Charley Beasley was high for the Chaparrals with 5.

Detroit Uses Something Old, Something New

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Red Wings used something old and something new but in the end it was Bruce MacGregor who left the Chicago Black Hawks blue.

The something old was Gordie Howe, performing for the 23rd season in the National Hockey League. The something new was young Nick Libett, a rookie center, who won't be 23 years old until next month. Both Howe and Libett scored two goals—Gordie's pair giving him 694 in regular season play.

But it was MacGregor's third-period goal that sunk the Hawks 6-5 Wednesday night.

In other NHL action, Toronto nipped Minnesota 1-0, Boston bombed Philadelphia 7-1, St. Louis dropped Pittsburgh 3-1 and Los Angeles blanked New York 2-0.

Howe, Libett and another rookie, Danny Lawson, gave Detroit a first period edge. But Erick Nesterenko hit twice and Pit Martin, Chico Maki and Jim Pappin all scored for Chicago—Pappin's third-period goal tying the game after Howe's second of the night.

Then MacGregor's first goal of the year with 5½ minutes left to play won it for the Red Wings.

Bobby Hull had four assists and took over the NHL scoring lead from Chicago teammate Stan Mikita. Hull has nine goals and 3 assists for 22 points compared to Mikita's 5-13-18.

Toronto spoiled John Muckle's debut as Minnesota coach by nipping the North Stars on a third period goal by Paul Henderson.

The fiercely forechecking Leafs protected goalie Bruce Gamble, who played the shutout in only his second start of the season. Most of Minnesota's 27 shots were harmless.

Henderson, roaming free about 20 feet in front of Minnesota goalie Cesare Maniago, whipped a waist high shot for the goal after taking a pass from Floyd Smith.

St. Louis bunched three goals in 11 minutes of the second period to beat Pittsburgh. The trio of scores came after the Penguins' Earl Ingarfield had snapped a scoreless tie in the second period.

Then Camille Henry, the West Division's leading scorer, potted his eighth goal of the year and Bill McCrea and Ab MacDonald also hit.

The Penguins managed only 20 shots at Glenn Hall while the Blues got 31 off at Les Binkley. Phil Esposito scored twice for the Bruins who bombed ex-tem-mate Bernie Parent and beat Philadelphia. Parent, who made 9 saves, was brilliant during a scoreless first period but Boston broke through with three goals by Tommy Williams, Ken Hodge and rookie Wayne Cashman in the second.

Then Esposito hit twice and Gary Doak and Derek Sanderson once each in the final 20 minutes. Gary Dornhoefer, another ex-Bruin, scored the Flyers' one goal.

New York lost its first game of the season against a West Division team after seven straight victories, as rookie goalie Gerry

Tigers Go to DeQueen Friday Night

Yerger Sportswriters
ARTHUR MAXWELL and
BEN PERKINS

The Yerger Tigers will take to the road once more on Friday night, when they go to DeQueen Arkansas to play the De Queen Leopards. The Tigers are remembering their 39-13 loss to DeQueen last year and are also remembering that they were defeated two weeks ago. A victory here would put the Tigers in a good position to become the district 7-A Champions, however a loss would completely eliminate them. The Tigers loss to Ash-down brought their record to 5-1-1 for the season and 3-1-1 in district 7-A. The Tigers, this week, will be operating without defensive end Richard Carter who has sustained a knee injury.

The Tigers will be looking for your support, so follow them to DeQueen Friday night for a most important game.

The simple way to play forcing two bids with a partner is to treat them as one-round forces. Hence, when North went to four spades, he was making a mild slam try.
South was delighted to accept the invitation, even though North's two no-trump response had not been encouraging.

West's queen of clubs was allowed to hold the first trick.
The suit was continued and South played low from dummy a second time. South was sure that East held the ace of clubs and wanted to keep dummy's king of clubs to exert pressure against East.

He ruffed the second club and ran off three rounds of trumps. Then he played out his ace and queen of diamonds.

When East discarded a club on the second diamond, South, who was something of a show-off, spread his hand and claimed his contract. He remarked, "It was a mighty good slam contract. If West held the club ace or if diamonds broke evenly, it would have been a laydown. As it is, there is an automatic three-suit squeeze for it."

South was right. When the defenders refused to concede, he led out his last two spades.
He discarded hearts from dummy. This left North with the king and one diamond, the jack of hearts and king of clubs. West had to come down to two hearts in order to protect his jack of diamonds, while East held onto three hearts and the ace of clubs.

Then South led a diamond to dummy's king. West had already been squeezed out of heart protection. Now East was squeezed in turn because he had to hold onto the ace of clubs and South's deuce of hearts produced the 12th trick.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Captain J. T. West was a spunky man. Back in 1876 he retired from successful Mississippi Boating business and moved to Hope, (a cabin boy under him was a youngster named Samuel L. Clemens whom the West nicknamed Mark Twain.)
In 1893 The Bank of Hope came into existence with spunky Captain West as its first president. Later known as the First National Bank of Hope, it still maintains the old river-mans aggressiveness and business institution.

Since opening the doors of its new building at Second and Walnut in 1959, First National has almost doubled its customer deposits, and grown into a financial institution offering a full range of services to all Southwest Arkansas. Maybe it's because the Spirit of spunky Captain West is still there.

Angels Purchase an Infielder

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — The California Angels bought veteran infielder Ruben Amaro from the New York Yankees Wednesday in a straight cash deal. The price was not disclosed, but was estimated at $20,000.

Transfer of Government Now Planned

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew are beneficiaries of more advance planning for the transfer of government than ever before in United States history. They will be the first to avail themselves of a $750,000 transitional expense account provided by Congress in 1964 which President Johnson as the incumbent didn't need.

And Johnson himself acted months ago to smooth the way by appointing a liaison man to plan with representatives of the three major candidates for the use of decision that would face the new presidential team.

Every department and agency is handing over transition briefings papers to spell out administrative and budget problems and catalogue important jobs the president-elect will have to fill.

The incoming president and vice president get $375,000 each to pay for office staffs, consultants, travel expenses, postage, printing, telephones and communications.

President Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey get $75,000 each to ease them through the first six months of their transition to private life. Fifty rooms in two executive office buildings near the White House have been furnished and fully equipped for the staffs of the new presidential team. However, Nixon said he would continue to work out of his New York offices.

In the days between now and inauguration, one of the biggest tasks facing the president-elect is finding new people to fill hundreds of important posts. He also must acquaint himself with pressing diplomatic and budgetary problems and start work on his own important State of the Union messages.

Aides say the Vietnam war has put top priority on selection of national security officials, including new secretaries of state and defense.

In the turnover of executive power, the president-elect has an estimated 50 to 500 key appointments to consider. All are high-level personnel who serve "at the pleasure of the president." He must pick a White House staff of about 40. And, ultimately, must take a look at some 1,600 other policy and support positions.

Months ago, Johnson gave a White House transition assignment to his special counsel, Charles Murphy, a 67-year-old veteran of 30 years of government service and former chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Advance planning has included inaugural events as well. Bipartisan Nixon and Humphrey representatives came to some tentative agreements aimed at shortening the inaugural parade, but proposing six inaugural balls instead of the five in 1965.

LBJ's Ocean Plan to Get Approval

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.M.Y. (AP) — President Johnson's proposal for an international Decade of Ocean Development is expected to get unanimous approval in the U.N. General Assembly's main political committee.

A resolution sponsored by the United States and 18 other nations welcomes Johnson's proposal last March to begin a 10-year Statesman he frequently made the peaceful uses of the ocean floor.

The resolution calls on U.N. members to propose scientific programs for the decade, urges them to publish the results of their findings during that period and asks the International Oceanographic Commission to coordinate the efforts.

The 125-nation committee is also expected today to approve two other resolutions dealing with the sea bed.

One sponsored by Malta, Mauritius and Tanzania endorses the principles that no nation may claim the sea bed, that it should be developed in the interests of all and that it should be exploited for peaceful purposes only.

Another, introduced by the United States, the Soviet Union and 28 other nations to take measures to minimize pollution of the oceans from seabed mining and drilling.

Gunnar G. Schram of Iceland urged that some sort of machinery be set up to determine responsibility in sea bed exploration.

"A case of pollution can present a grave threat to countries far from the source," Schram told the committee.

A year's study of the sea bed carried out under U.N. auspices has noted that huge red sources in oil, gas, manganese and phosphate exist on or under the ocean floor. The survey pointed out, however, that knowledge of these resources is limited and it will be at least 10 years before they are tapped unless there are unforeseen technological developments.

Fgn. Reaction to Election Favorable

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — Foreign reaction to Richard M. Nixon's election was widely favorable today, with conservatives enthusiastic, socialists cool to lukewarm and communist criticism.

In the first Soviet comment on Nixon's election, Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, said he was the "big business" candidate who won strong support in the large cities because he promised to suppress the "Negro upheaval."

Pravda said neither Nixon nor Humphrey gave the American people a "clear answer to questions of war and peace," and as a result "Americans quite openly voted not so much for as against one candidate or another."

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

In Asia, there was some concern and criticism mixed with general approval of the election outcome. But anti-Communist leaders who know Nixon from his many visits to their areas welcomed his election and expressed confidence he would maintain close U.S. ties with the area.

In Venezuela, where Nixon was treated roughly on a visit 10 years ago, his election aroused some disappointment. Crowds in Caracas on election night cheered returns in which Humphrey led.

The Times of London said the first condition for success of Nixon's presidency would be to end the Vietnam war and added that "on foreign policy, Mr. Nixon's stated position accords with realities. Before the invasion of Czechoslovakia his harder line on Russia might have seemed mere echo of Dullesism, but its tone now is probably about right for Europe's needs."

The London Daily Express noted that Britain's next ambassador to Washington John Freeman, may be embarrassed because while editor of the weekly New Statesman he frequently attacked Nixon.

West Germans appeared pleased at Nixon's election. To small sampling, at least, he presented an image of a no-nonsense man who would stand up to Soviet communism. Finance Minister Franz Joseph Strauss cabled the President-elect: "The American people have made a good decision. The free world has gained a good leader."

An Egyptian government spokesman in Cairo attacked all three presidential candidates as supporters of the Israeli "aggression" against the Arabs. In Israel, the man in the street recalled Nixon's strong stance during the campaign in favor of Israel. "Now all we have to do is wait and see that he lives up to those promises," one political writer said.

Chinese Communist newspapers in Hong Kong called Nixon "a hawk who has not given up the threat of new weapons and new military action in Vietnam."

Hong Kong editions of Peking's Ta Kung Pao and Shanghai's Wen Wei Pao also labeled Nixon a "rotten champion of American imperialism."

There was no reaction from Peking itself.

Solid pro-Nixon sentiment was evident on Formosa, Nationalist China's island.

"I am pleased," said Premier Thanom Kittikachorn of Thailand. South Korean Information Minister Hong Chong-chul said Nixon would help strengthen ties among non-Communist nations.

A Japanese foreign ministry spokesman said his government feels Nixon will ask Asian countries to shoulder a greater burden of responsibility for their defense. Concerning policy toward Japan, he said he feels Nixon "will follow the same fundamental line of the Johnson administration on basic issues."

'Relax' is Key Word For Restful Sleep

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—Almost every night I lie in bed for hours without sleeping. I take sleeping pills but would like to get along without them. What do you advise?

A—The surest way to stay awake when you want to sleep is to worry about it. Sleeping pills should not be used regularly. Most such pills are habit-forming and, since they interfere with normal dreaming, the sleep you get is not as restful as lying in bed awake but relaxed. The key word here is relax. Perfect relaxation requires a lot of practice but it pays big dividends. Once you have learned to relax, sleep will follow automatically.

Q—My husband often falls asleep in a chair at night and, if no one wakes him, he will spend the night there. Shouldn't a person lie down at least part of the 24 hours?

A—Although your husband may get a fair amount of relaxed sleep sitting up, he is in danger of getting a circulatory disease in his feet and ankles. For this reason the horizontal position would be much better for him.

Q—How much sleep should a healthy adult get?

A—That's something like asking how big a shoe a healthy adult should wear. There is a wide variation in the amount of sleep different persons need. Some apparently need 10 hours every night, while others do just as well with six or less. I believe, however, that many persons who sleep only five or six hours at night get short cat naps during the day. Furthermore, it has been found that many persons who sleep poorly at night feel better during the day and sleep better at night if they can arrange a 15-to-20-minute nap once or twice a day.

Q—What causes sleepwalking? What would happen if the sleepwalker should wake up while he is walking?

A—Although the cause is not fully understood, overstimulation or emotional tension just before going to bed is thought to be a factor. It is usually hard to wake a sleepwalker. It is best to lead him gently back to bed without trying to wake him. When he is awakened, he is usually in a daze and will not remember the incident in the morning. The best treatment is quiet relaxation before retiring.

Q—I sometimes talk in my sleep. How can I stop this?

A—Everything I have said about sleepwalking would apply to talking in your sleep.

Barberry should never be planted in wheat-growing areas since it is attacked by black stem rust, a fungus disease likely to spread to wheat fields.

Pat Neal Reveals

'I Wanted to Die'

PATRICIA NEAL

'For eight months I wanted to die. And then, one day . . . life began to look better. Now I love being alive . . . I want to live another 20 years . . .'

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Being alive is a condition most of us take for granted. But it is different if, like Patricia Neal, you once spent months wishing you would die.

That, of course, was in 1965 when she had the stroke that nearly killed her. Today, except for a slight limp and some minor difficulties with things like writing and turning pages, she is fine. And she loves life, savoring every precious moment of it.

"You'll never know how much I wanted to die," she says. "For eight months I wanted to die. And then, one day—I remember it was in November—life began to look a little better. Now I love being alive. I'm 42 now, and I want to live another 20 years so I can see my children grown up."

There is suffering in her face, but strength, too. It helps her performance in "The Subject Was Roses," the first picture she has made since her illness. The character she plays has suffered, and survived, and Pat's face is that kind of a face.

"One thing tragedy does," says Pat, "is make you stronger. Roald and I are strong now."

Roald Dahl, her husband, made her go back to work. She didn't want to. She was content to sit in their home in Great Missenden, between London and Oxford, in England, and be a parent. And tend the garden. And go shopping.

But Roald knew how much she had enjoyed acting, before. So he made her take the part in "The Subject Was Roses." The first day, she hated it. The second day, she tolerated it. From the third day on, she says, she was in love with acting again. Now she'd like to do a picture every 18 months or so.

She hopes this is a turning point for her.

"We had seven unbelievably terrible years," she says, and she smiles a little, as though it is even hard for her to believe it. "First, Theo was in that accident."

Theo was a baby then, her first son. He was in his baby carriage in New York and it was hit by a taxi. For years, it was doubtful if he would survive and, if he did, how he would grow up. Pat says that now he is doing well; he can't run well and he can't draw well and he has become left-handed, but he reads well and does his arithmetic well and she has high hopes for him.

"That was the first thing," she says. "And then my beloved Olivia died."

Olivia was the Dahls' oldest child, and she died at 7 of measles.

"Then I was sick. And then Roald's mother died. And Roald had operations on his back and his nose."

The seven dark years are over. The future must be better. They have the strength now.

"When Theo was hurt," Pat says, "I went to pieces—and Roald was marvelous. When Olivia died, he couldn't cope—but somehow I found the strength. When I got sick, he was tremendous. When he had his operations and couldn't sleep, I was able to sit up with him every night. We've managed."

She thinks the worst is over. She remembers back to a day in New York, 20 years ago, when she was dating an actor named Peter Cookson. For fun, they went to a fortune teller. She told Peter that he would marry a rich woman (and he did, actress Beatrice Straight) and she told Pat that she would lose a child, have another one hurt in an accident, be terribly sick herself.

That has all happened. There is nothing bad left.
